EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT:

Our thanks to all who attended the Live Recording Session at Rose Lehrman Arts Center at HACC on June 15th - the event and the recording were very successful. We had over 160 people attend and they made a very inspiring audience for Jonathan & me. The resulting CD will be out this fall.

We had a great time at the Harrisburg Arts Fest this year - thanks to all who came by and played - the music was great and we made a lot of new jazz friends that weekend!

If you would like to volunteer some time at future CPFJ events, please contact our volunteer coordinator, Leslie Beamer, at lkbeamer3@yahoo.com or (717) 790-9672. If you are interested in helping to underwriting any CPFJ events, please contact the office at your convenience.

The Brubeck Tribute Concert will now be part of our 2013 Fall Concert Series and will be held on Saturday, September 25th at the new Pollock Center for the Arts in Camp Hill, PA. Updated information is in this issue and tickets are available on our web site in The ViBE. We thank Tom & Donna Weik for funding this great event which will feature Cyrus Chestnut's Trio and young alto sax star Sharel Cassity. A full evening of Brubeck's music and rare video footage of the original Brubeck Quartet will be presented. We will have a V.I.P. Meet the Artist reception following the performance. If you are a sponsor member of CPFJ this event will be included in your Fall Series tickets - please be sure to renew in time to get your tickets!

Our annual Jazz Camp, June 19-21 at Messiah College was the best yet - 67 students attending and a very inspired final performance in the splendid High Center. Our thanks to Chuck Rhodes & ABC-27 for covering the Camp in his Out & About news segment. Chuck even sat in on drums with the Camp Faculty band and got a standing ovation from the students. The video clip is available for viewing at ABC-27's web site.

The Olewine Family Fund has been a very loyal underwriter of the Camp and scholarships were generously given this year by Dave & Mary Heltzel, Penn National Insurance, the Hall Foundation and Rosemary Barrett. Please consider underwriting scholarships for worthy Camp students and make sure your young musical friends know of this great opportunity and encourage them to take part in the camp next year.

Please review the concert/club pages in this issue and get out often to support the establishments that are hosting jazz and support our talented area jazz musicians.

We are seeking new Board Members for CPFJ - if you have an interest in serving, contact the CPFJ office - 717-540-1010. We also need active committee members for our Membership, Youth & Marketing committees.

Our annual Central PA Jazz Festival will be held on August 8-11 this year in various Harrisburg venues. Complete schedule is available in this issue - Dave Stahl's Big Band and drummer Justin Faulker's performance & lecture highlight the events.

Special recognition to Lois Lehman Grass, Miles and Carol Gibbons of the Wells Foundation, Tom & Donna Weik, Ben Olewine and Kristen Olewine Milke, R. Scott Shearer, and Bob Pugliese of Premier Wealth Management for their recent contributions to CPFJ. It takes thoughtful and generous community leaders like these to keep the arts alive in today's challenging economic climate and we are most grateful for their caring support.

Thanks to all for helping to keep CPFJ moving forward!

CPFJ FALL SERIES CONCERT - SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28TH

A Tribute to Dave Brubeck

Cyrus Chestnut pays tribute to the jazz icon with an evening of his music and memories in the new Pollock Center in Camp Hill, PA.. A VIP Meet the Artist reception will be held following the concert's video presentation and performance. Please join us in this tribute!

This performance is underwritten by Tom & Donna Weik in memory of Tom's father, Wilbur Z. Weik.

CPFJ proudly announces a special concert in tribute to the memory of one of America's jazz icons - Dave Brubeck. The pianist and composer who helped make jazz popular again in the 1950s and '60s with recordings like "Time Out," the first jazz album to sell a million copies, and "Take Five," the still instantly recognizable hit single that was that album's centerpiece, died in December, 2012, one day before his 92nd birthday. In his long career he became best known for his famous Quartet that featured drummer Joe Morello, bassist Eugene Wright, and alto saxophonist Paul Desmond.

CPFJ is thrilled to have our featured performer Cyrus Chestnut arranging a full evening of Brubeck's music for his Trio & he will bring special guest alto saxophonist Sharel Cassity to help relive the original Brubeck Quartet sound. Video segments of the original Brubeck Quartet will also be shown.

Cyrus began his musical career at the age of six, playing in church in Baltimore, MD. While in Maryland he studied at the Peabody Conservatory and went to Boston to get his degree in Composition from Berklee College of Music. He has since been a major force on the international jazz scene having toured and performed with a wide range of artists including Bette Midler, Freddie Hubbard, Chick Corea, Isaac Hayes, Dizzy Gillespie, Betty Carter & opera star Kathleen Battle.

We are also excited to host this performance in the new Grace Milliman Pollock Performing Arts Center - 340 North 21st Street, Camp Hill, PA 17011 - a facility that is part of the Camp Hill School district conveniently located just off the Hwy 15 Bypass.

Tom Weik, a long time CPFJ Corporate Member, suggested having this event and is underwriting the concert in memory of his father, Wilbur Z. Weik, who introduced Tom to jazz when he was a boy.

We will host a V.I.P. Meet the Artist reception following the concert - tickets are available from our web site - www.friendsofjazz.org or by phone 717-540-1010.

Please join us in celebrating the life and career of this American original.

CPFJ 2013 FALL CONCERT SERIES CONTINUES

CHRISTIAN HOWES Southern Exposure

On Sunday, October 13 at 3:00 pm at The Allen Theater in Annville, CPFJ proudly presents Christian Howes and his group - Southern Exposure. Jazz violinist Christian Howes grew up in Columbus, Ohio, where he studied classically from the age of five, performing as a soloist with the Columbus Symphony Orchestra at age 16 and later receiving his bachelor's degree in Philosophy from the Ohio State University. At age twenty, a "cultural intervention" occurred when Christian had the opportunity to perform at regular gospel church services and it became his mission to become a violinist with a strong voice in jazz. Since his shift 21 years ago, he has gained great notoriety from critics and players alike as one of the world's most respected jazz violinists. Christian was a favorite of the late guitar legend Les Paul, with whom he worked for 11 years. An in-demand violinist on the New York scene, He collaborates with a bevy of top shelf jazz artists, including Greg Osby, Frank Vignola, Dafnis Prieto, Dave Samuels, Spyro Gyra, and a 4-year chair in Bill Evans' "Soulgrass" band. In 2013, he was voted among the top three violinists in JazzTimes' 2012 Expanded Critics Poll. In August 2011, Christian was ranked as the #1 "Rising Star" violinist in the Downbeat Critics Poll and was a nominee for the Jazz Journalists Association's "Violinist Of The Year" in 2011. In 2012, he received the Residency Partnership from Chamber Music America for his work in outreach with orchestral education programs. He regularly tours throughout Asia, Europe, and the U.S. as a leader of his own groups and a soloist with orchestras. Says All About Jazz, "as a jazz violinist he has no peer." The Minneapolis Tribune called Christian "arguably the most intriguing young violinist in jazz."

FREDDY COLE QUARTET

On Sunday, November 10 at 3:00PM IN The Ware Center, Lancaster, CPFJ is proud to welcome The Freddy Cole Quartet, featuring Freddy Cole piano/vocals, Elias Bailey bass, Curtis Boyd drums, Randy Napoleon guitar. Living jazz legend Lionel Frederick Cole was born in 1931, the youngest of Edward and Paulina Nancy Cole's five children. His three elder brothers - Eddie, Ike and Nat (twelve years Freddy's senior) - were all musicians. Freddy began playing and singing in Chicago clubs as a teenager. Although he was ready to hit the road at 18, his mother intervened and he continued his musical education at the Roosevelt Institute in Chicago. Freddy moved to New York in 1951, where he studied at Julliard and found himself profoundly influenced by John Lewis, Oscar Peterson and Teddy Wilson. It was back in New York that Freddy successfully laid the groundwork for a career that continues to flourish to this day. He developed a vast repertoire of songs in Manhattan bistros and concurrently began to supplement his live performances with television and radio commercial jingle work. Freddy recorded several albums for European and English companies during the 1970s that helped him develop a loyal overseas following. He developed a stand-up act, a better rapport with audiences, and learned to sing in other languages. He plays piano and sings and performs live with guitar, drums and upright bass. He has emerged from the awesome shadow cast by his elder brother, Nat King Cole. In truth, his phrasing is far closer to that of Frank Sinatra or Billie Holiday than that of his brother and his timing swings a little more. His vocals - suave, elegant, formidable, and articulate - are among the most respected in jazz. Cole's career continues to ascend as he has moved into the front ranks of America's homegrown art form with a style and musical

2013 CENTRAL PA JAZZ CAMP...A ROARING SUCCESS!

On Wednesday morning, June 19, a band of 67 hopeful young jazz musicians from Central Pennsylvania and beyond gathered at Messiah College for the 2013 CPFJ Jazz Camp. Attendees ranged in age from eight years old to twenty-one. After checking into their dorm rooms and meeting roommates, the campers were introduced to the Camp faculty, led by Cyrus Chestnut. Each camper was evaluated to determine his or her level of experience and was assigned to a group led by one faculty member. For the next two days, campers participated in Master Classes, individual instrument tutoring, improvisation and nightly jam sessions. On Thursday, area TV personality Chuck Rhodes brought a camera crew to document the camp on his "Out & About" news segment. He interviewed many students and faculty and ended up sitting in with the faculty band - for those who aren't aware, Chuck's an experienced musician as well as our area's long time favorite weather guy. The footage can be viewed

The Camp culminated on Friday evening in a final concert at the beautiful new Parmer Hall in the High Center for Worship and Performing Arts. Each group performed a number which included solos by all participants. It was clear that parents, grandparents and members of the public were amazed and delighted with the level of talent on display that evening. One parent wrote that, "As parents, the final concert was a joy to experience! It was so wonderful to see each student have such a passion for not only playing, but performing as well." To close the evening and the Camp, the faculty performed two amazing numbers.

This Jazz Camp was groundbreaking in the number of campers (67) and the breathtaking new facility at Messiah College. Campers were reluctant to leave...many suggested that next year's Camp be longer. Our deepest thanks to Ben Olewine, Kristen Olewine Milke and the Olewine Family Trust for underwriting the Camp again this year. We are also grateful for the generous scholarship funding provided by Rosemary Barrett, The Hall Foundation, Penn National Insurance, and Phoenix Design Associates of York.

As always, our thanks to Dr. William Stowman and his staff at Messiah, and to Cyrus Chestnut, Jonathan Ragonese, Kirk Reese, Steve Meashey, Jeff Stabley, Ryan Sweer, Mitchell Stowman, Andrew Loose, Garrett Krohn and Brittany Taylor...our brilliant faculty.

We look forward to presenting the Camp again next year at Messiah and hope that you will consider donating scholarship funds for needy students in the coming year.
