EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT:

I hope you were able to attend the great concert that the Ben Wolfe Trio performed for us during the Central PA Friends of Jazz Camp. Their tribute to Thelonious Monk's 100th year with young piano giant Victor Gould and veteran NYC drummer Donald Edwards brought rave reviews as did the Camp's annual student concert. We had 89 happy campers this year - the most ever! Our thanks to the camp faculty - Paul Bratcher, Jonathan Ragonese, Kirk Reese, Jeff Stabley, Steve Varner, Garrett Krohn, Andrew Loose, Cathy Chemi, Jay Umble and our special guest Ben Wolfe, for sharing their expertise and mentoring these avidly interested students. More than half of the students had never been to our camp before and we had students from as far away as California & Texas. We are also grateful to Bill Stowman and his staff for administering the Camp again this year in the beautiful High Center at Messiah College. Plans are already underway to make next year's camp even better than this edition - please let your young musicians know about this rare opportunity to study with master teachers/musicians.

Our thanks to the Olewine Family Trust, who have been loyal supporters of our Camp for many years. The founder of the Trust, Ben Olewine, passed away May 30th at the age of 95 and we extend our deepest sympathies to his family, He was a very charitable soul, giving to environmental causes, cancer funds, the Whitaker Center, and many other community charities. He will be profoundly missed by his family and the many others whose lives he touched with his gentle and kind spirit.

Be sure to tell your friends to visit our website, to read The ViBE, and check out videos of upcoming artists and events - we try to keep the site looking good, interesting, and up to date. Also, please like our Facebook Page and share our events - social media is a great way to tell people about CPFJ. Make sure you link to our new Twitter handle as well - @pafriendsofjazz - say connected - there's lots of great music coming your way from CPFJ!

The CPFJ Board has approved an agreement with the Ware Center in Lancaster to co-promote two concerts annually in their main concert venue, Steinman Hall, and we are thrilled to be sharing this great listening space. These events will be part of our Fall & Spring Concert Series and tickets will be available for our Sponsor, Life & Corporate members, but you will have to reserve tickets through the Ware Center. We will be sending a letter soon to let you know the details for securing your tickets. All other members will receive discounts on tickets, but will have to order them through the Ware Center as well. The first Ware event is October 15th and features the wonderful trumpeter and vocalist Jeremy Davenport and his band live from New Orleans. Jeremy's band is in residence at NOLA's Ritz Carton in a great listening room they named after him - the Davenport Lounge. On March 25 legendary jazz vocalist Mary Stallings will appear at the Ware Center for our second performance in this splendid space. This is an opportunity for us to present great jazz in a beautiful hall and attract new members from the Lancaster County area. So mark your calendars - October 15, 2017 and March 25, 2018 - and make plans to attend.

We are really excited about the upcoming 37th Annual Central PA Jazz Festival. Over 100 musicians will appear in nine venues performing every style of jazz from Dixie to Swing to BeBop and beyond. We especially look forward to presenting Delfeayo Marsalis at Gretna Playhouse and to working with Gretna Music on what will be a very special evening performance. Please check out the schedule on pages 4 & 5 in this issue and come out for as many events as possible. We again thank Premier Wealth Management (Bob Pugliese & Traci Shughart) for their generous grant to help underwrite all of the events at the Festival and Faulkner Subaru for their special underwriting of this year's Jazz Party. Thanks to their grant we can present the River City Big Band at the Party in a space that is ideal for swing dancing - the Capital Room at Harrisburg Midtown Arts Center. The Party this year features five groups in three venues within HMAC - The Kitchen & Gallery Bar (great food and drinks), Stage on Herr (a black box theater setting with food and drinks available) and the 2nd floor ballroom (there is an elevator) . There is also FREE VALET PARKING for all of our patrons that evening thanks to John Traynor and his able staff.

Stay tuned for news of this year's Fall Concert Series - September 8th at the Dauphin Co. Jazz & Wine Fest, October 15th at the Ware Center in Lancaster, and November 12th at the High Center on Messiah College's campus.

As always, we hope you will share some of your time and help us by volunteering - there are many ways you can help the Friends of Jazz - PLEASE CALL!

Thanks to all for your continuing support!

Steve Rudolph, Executive Director, CPFJ

HELP SUPPORT OUR 37th ANNUAL CENTRAL PA JAZZ FESTIVAL!

As you have probably already read elsewhere in this newsletter, we have planned an outstanding program for CPFJ's 37th Annual Jazz Festival. Although we are very cost conscious, bringing top quality musicians, arranging for facilities, advertising, and everything required to organize our Festival cost money...quite a bit of money! Like all arts groups, CPFJ must rely on financial support from those who appreciate and understand the value of live jazz. Our membership fees, ticket prices, and grants only cover approximately 65% of the costs to produce concerts and festivals. We need your support for the 37th Annual Central PA Jazz Festival to succeed.

We ask you to make a special contribution to the success of the Festival. Become an Underwriter with your tax-deductible contribution and let us list your name as a supporter in the program booklet. You may also choose to pay tribute to a friend or musician by listing their name in the program. Or, if you prefer, take an ad in the program to promote your business or organization. The program will highlight all of the events and artists for the Festival and will be distributed at all Festival events and our Fall Concert Series (from August through December, 2017).

The deadline for inclusion in our program is fast approaching. If you are interested, please give us a call or complete the form on page ten and mail it to us right away. Or you may go to our website and use our ONLINE STORE to place your order. We can also accept your information/ad by email at friends@friendsofjazz.org.

Each and every donation, no matter the size, is truly appreciated. Thank you!

Central PA Friends of Jazz - Track of the Month

by Paul Haidet (@myheroistrane)

The Three Sounds – "Tammy's Breeze" from the album "Moods"

When the band Chicago released "Saturday in the Park" in 1972, I thought that this might possibly be the most perfect song ever released to evoke a relaxed summertime Saturday afternoon. "Tammy's Breeze," released a dozen years earlier, is jazz's Sunday equivalent of "Saturday in the Park." Hailing originally from South Bend, Indiana, The Three Sounds included Gene Harris on piano, Andrew Simpkins on bass, and Bill Dowdy on drums, and they were one of the Blue Note label's best-selling artists in the late 1950s and early 1960s. Together with the Ramsey Lewis Trio, the Three Sounds' bluesy, swinging style captivated the masses, and kept jazz in the public eye, even though many critics unfairly dismissed the group at the time as "lounge jazz." This track proves the critics wrong and demonstrates The Three Sounds' versatility. A Gene Harris original, the tune settles immediately into a relaxed groove that will have you floating along with Tammy on that warm summer current.

JEREMY DAVENPORT
Dynamic sounds direct from the birthplace of Jazz - New Orleans! This singer-trumpeter is a veteran of the Harry Connick, Jr. Orchestra and a resident of the NOLA Ritz Carlton's Davenport Lounge - they liked him so much they named the room after him! Don't miss this rare opportunity to hear him execute favorite standards and originals with exquisite style. OCTOBER 15, 2017 3PM

A legendary staple in the fabric of jazz, San Francisco singer and HighNote recording artist MARY STALLINGS' bio reads like a Who's Who of jazz greats and prestigious festivals. For nearly half a century, listeners have enjoyed the silky, long-tone stylings of a woman of whom the New York Times says, "...perhaps the best jazz singer singing today...". MARCH 25, 2018 3PM

JOIN THE CPFJ YOUTH BAND

Our continuing dedication to jazz education led to the creation of the CPFJ Youth Band almost 30 years ago. Ron Waters is the Director for the CPFJ Youth Band. There is no tuition fee and all young musicians with an interest in learning to improvise are welcome. The band is open to all school age musicians - grade school through high school. All applicants are accepted without audition Mr. Waters prepares arrangements to suit the particular talents of the participants each year. A professional arranger, composer and trumpet player, he finds a niche for every instrumentalist and vocalist. The band's rehearsals and concerts are scheduled year round including performances at the Central PA Jazz Festival, Jazz Picnic, JazzMobile and many other events. Not only do the students get wonderful experience playing in an improvising ensemble, but they get to meet kids from other schools who have the same interests. This ensemble offers a different experience than most High School Jazz Ensembles - it is not a place where the students simply read the notes on the page - all members learn to improvise and get valuable experience playing jazz standards and original music in a group setting. The Youth Band is also not restricted to the traditional big band instrumentation (trumpets, trombones, saxes & rhythm section) - all instruments are welcome - we have had almost every imaginable instrument….cello, accordion, oboe, flute, etc. in past bands. COME JOIN THE FUN!!

Please contact Mr. Waters at (717) 432-3109 or via email at erinjazz01@gmail.com

IMPORTANT FRIENDS OF JAZZ INFORMATION!!

The Friday night, September 8th serves as our first FALL SERIES CONCERT at the Dauphin County Jazz & Wine Fest. Sponsor, Corporate & Life Friends will receive tickets by mail as they would for our regular Spring and Fall Concerts These tickets are good for the full three day event. Dauphin Co. does not sell single day tickets - only tickets for the full three day Festival. Many of our supporters have expressed concern that the new $50 fee ($60 at the gate) for tickets is too much to pay if you are only interested in the Friday night event. If you are a member in good standing in CPFJ and are interested only in the Friday night event, we have been approved to sell single day tickets for $30 to our members only. Regular Members may purchase only one ticket, patrons and donors may purchase two tickets at the $30 price. These tickets must be purchased in advance! You must call the office (717-540-1010) or order online (www.friendsofjazz.org) in order to get this opportunity - this ticket includes all music and wine tastings for the day. The event is held at Ft. Hunter Park just north of Harrisburg and is a rain or shine event - they have a circus-sized tent that will provide cover in case of inclement weather. There is free parking at the park. Remember to bring a chair or blanket as there are none available on site. There are several food vendors as well as twelve area vintners offering free tastings to ticket holders. No outside alcohol is allowed in the park, but you may bring your own picnic basket. Please contact us if you have questions - this is a good time to renew you membership in order to take advantage of this offer.

Sat., Aug. 12: FESTIVAL CONCERT - 7:30PM
Mt. Gretna Playhouse, 200 Pennsylvania Ave, Mt Gretna, PA 17064 Tickets from $12 - $30

Our 37th Annual Festival Concert will be held at the beautiful Mt. Gretna Playhouse again this year and features one of the most prominent names in the jazz world - trombonist Delfeayo Marsalis. He will bring an all-star quartet that features rising star pianist Richard Johnson to perform at 7:30 p.m. This concert is a joint production of the Central PA Friends of Jazz and Gretna Music.

Trombonist, composer, and producer Delfeayo Marsalis is a highly regarded jazz performer and a member of the famed Marsalis family. Born in New Orleans in 1965 to esteemed jazz pianist and professor Ellis Marsalis, Jr.,Delfeayo grew up alongside his five siblings including saxophonist Branford Marsalis, trumpeter Wynton Marsalis, and drummer Jason Marsalis. As a teenager, he attended the New Orleans Center for Creative Arts, the Eastern Music Festival, and the Tanglewood Institute, during which time he studied classical music and jazz. After high school, he majored in both performance and audio production at the Berklee College of Music. Marsalis also holds a master's degree in Jazz Performance from the University of Louisville and was conferred a doctorate by New England College. As a performer, the trombonist gained experience touring with luminaries Ray Charles, Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers, and pianist Abdullah Ibrahim. He also has an extensive list of producer credits, having helmed recordings with his brothers Branford and Wynton as well as albums by Harry Connick, Jr., Donald Harrison, Marcus Roberts, and others. As a solo recording artist, he debuted in 1992 with the Biblically inspired Pontius Pilate's Decision followed with Musashi in 1997. His Elvin Jones tribute album Minions Dominion was released in 2006. Sweet Thunder, a reworking of Duke Ellington's suite incorporating Shakespearean themes, appeared in 2010. In 2014, Marsalis paired with his father, Ellis, for the urbane, standards-heavy The Last Southern Gentlemen. Two years later, he delivered the politically minded Make America Great Again!, which showcased the debut of his large ensemble the Uptown Jazz Orchestra.

The Mt. Gretna Playhouse is an open air/covered roof venue, so dress casually and come enjoy the evening's music. Tickets will be available at the door, but we recommend ordering in advance at www.friendsofjazz.org, calling the CPFJ Office 717-540-1010 or Gretna Music (717) 361-1508.
